

Sister Beth LeValley of the Sisters of St. Joseph Receives a Key to the City 2006

Sister Beth LeValley of the Sisters of St. Joseph receives a key to the city for her activism and national recognition by the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center. Sister Beth was integral in the establishment of the Progressive Neighborhood Federal Credit Union, which serves primarily low-income residents

Here she is shown, after receiving the award, selling a bottle of Miss Betty's Sauce to the Mayor!

She also founded Partners Through Food to help feed the poor until she succeeded in convincing grocery stores to return to Rochester's disadvantaged neighborhoods. Sister Beth also founded SSJ Daystar, a ministry dedicated to protecting our community's most vulnerable infants from birth to three years by providing foster care, child care, respite care, advocacy, and family support in a safe and stimulating home environment
